EDUCATION

The creation date for your CV is not important to list, but listing your name and page number on each page is.

2004 PhD Community Health Sciences Division of Environmental and Occupational Health, The University of Texas School of Public Health, Houston, TX
Major: Environmental Health Sciences; Minors: Epidemiology and Biostatistics

1997 Master's Degree of Medicine Department of Epidemiology, National Institute of Environmental Health and Related Product Safety, Chinese Center for Disease Control and Prevention (China CDC), Beijing, China

1994 Medical Doctoral Degree Tongji Medical University, Wuhan, China

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

It is important to list your research early in your CV if applying to research-intensive positions
